Sneaky Seniors . . .

While the juniors weren't looking, the senior class sneak committee led by Bud Sethe and president Don Jaenicke planned their successful vacation from the campus last Thursday. The phoning committee notified most students and the rendezvous was at 6:30 a.m. in the Safeway parking lot at Kent.

The sneak site was Shadow Lake and an estimated 70 seniors drove into the resort for a day of baseball, tennis, horseshoes, baseball, ping pong, swimming, boating and more baseball. Chaperones for the day were Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Fred Newman and Dr. John Phillips and family.

The hot sun beat down on the lake and sunburned seniors waited for the juniors to organize their search, hoping their sneak wouldn't be interrupted. The seniors were to themselves until 3:50 p.m. when phone calls came into the lodge that the juniors were near. Pop bottles, paper plates, beach bags, sports equipment and cars were cleared out of the lake area. A lone car carrying Anne Thompson, Louie Siegler and driven by Roger Chaney came into the deserted spot that became alive with seniors. A road block prevented other cars from coming in and the junior boys went into the cold lake. The hatchet was flashed and the smug seniors called it a day.

Their discovery of the sneak was not "valid" because twenty or more juniors are needed to make the discovery official.

Casualty of the day was a junior boy, Ken Cook, who lost his balance in a boat near shore. Don Jaenicke was thrown in as class president. Cook was comical in the skirt to Jo Copple's sunsuit.

Campus Day ..

April 30th the CPS Campus will get a face-lifting as students are excused from classes to help improve the College on Campus Day.

Messinger and Burkhalter with the hatchet

There will be a short chapel at 10. After that students will be divided into groups and work until noon. The cement in the Fieldhouse will be painted, the log shellaced, weeds and discarded paper removed, and new grass will be planted.

Everyone will bring his own lunch and eat at noon.

In the afternoon there will be an inter-class softball and a student-faculty game.

If it is a nice day everyone will go swimming at American Lake. The school will provide a bus for transportation. There will also be a car caravan.

At 6 p. m. everyone will gather at the SUB for a free dinner.

Following dinner there will be a song fest.

A street dance by the girls' gym will last until 9:30.

There will be a contest between the faculty and students to see who can get the most out of the people working.

Jolly Johnston and Don Boesel are co-chairmen for the affair. Under them are Duane Wegner and Esther Vogelain, dance chairmen; Cam Haslem and Virginia Walquist, recreation chairmen; Joan Oaks and Ralph Mackey, dinner chairmen; Gertrude Marsh and Louie Sigler, prizes.

Cancer Drive . . .

Forty CPS students are going to be down town next Saturday soliciting funds for the Cancer Drive.

The drive chairman, John Van Zonneveld, is calling on the fraternities and sororities this week to provide the necessary manpower. Any interested Independents may contact John.

Juniors Elect . . .

The Friday before vacation a few juniors climbed the stairs to H 215 for a class meeting. During the meeting John Van Zonneveld was elected president of the class of '53; Ted Vaughn, vice president; Joanne Lowry, secretary-treasurer; Stan Seldon, sergeant-at-arms; Bruce Jorgenson, Central Board representative; and JoAnne Wood, May princess.

Inter-Fraternity Council . . .

As a result of the Carnival Ball, sponsored by I. F. C. during spring vacation, a check for $300 was sent to the "Chuck Fain Fund."

The revised Constitution and the new By-Laws were accepted by the council at the last meeting. One of the new By-Laws states that before announcements can be made in all fraternity houses, they must first be approved by the Inter-Fraternity Council.

The next meeting of I. F. C. will be held at 8 P. M., April 29, at Dr. Powell's home.

CENTRAL BOARD MINUTES

April 15, 1952

The meeting was called to order by President, George Fossen. The minutes were read and approved.

Who's Laundry? . . .

Spring vacation not only brings leisure time, a burst of activities and numerous jobs, but this spring vacation also brought with it a mysterious bundle of laundry.

The laundry was acquired when Helen Hansen turned "Good Samaritan" long enough to help Trail reported Pat Smyth take a stack of 200 Trails to the post office downtown to be mailed. Both Helen and Pat were loaded down with books, sacks and tennis equipment.

After getting on the bus and contending with tennis balls bouncing all over the floor and books sliding all over the seats, Helen said, "I'm beginning to wish I had avoided you."

But soon they were able to get to the post office without further mishap and got the Trails off to the subscribers.

As Pat turned to thank Helen, Helen handed her a strange looking sack. "What's this for?" asked Pat.

"Isn't it yours?"

Pat declared that it was not and so they opened the sack to see the contents. It proved to be a bag of gym shorts and a blouse, with no name attached to it.

Helen took the bundle of laundry back to Jones Hall to the work table outside the library where she had picked it up. She found no one looking for the bag. She waited awhile, no one showed up. So in order to safeguard it for the vacation, she put it in her locker.

After vacation was over the CPSers re-invaded the halls, and Helen again placed the bundle back on the Jones Hall table. A little while later it was gone.

So for whoever belongs to the Student Meeting . . .

Better leadership will be the main topic of discussion at the Student Leadership Training Conference to be held at Deep Creek on Sunday, April 27, by the Student Christian Council.

This conference, the first of its kind to be held at CPS, is to train potential leaders of each organization to become better leaders in their individual organization.

Program for the day will be group discussions of campus problems followed by group singing in the evening. John Blake, director of public relations, will be guest speaker for the affair.

Later on during this semester the same students who attended this conference will meet at Dr. Thompson's home to discuss campus problems.

Rally Comm Elects . . .

Monday evening Rally Comm members elected officers for next year. Ralph Mackey landed on top as president; Don Boesel, treasurer; Janet Vroman, publicity; Larry Lamb, stunts; Beverly Hoback, rally chairman; and Hal Willard, secretary.

New members of Rally Comm are Ann Marr, Ann DuBois, Janet Vroman, Margie Berry and Janet Rollins.

Greek Ball . . .

The Greeks on Campus swayed to the music of Winston Baker last Friday, at the annual Greek Ball.

A good sized crowd showed up for the dance which was held at Fellowship Hall. The center of the floor was decorated with a large column with the various crests of the Greek organization pinned on it. Superimposed over the regular doors to the ballroom were paper maché doors with the Greek letters of the Greek organizations on them.

The chairmen for this event were Gloria Greene and Ray Harbert.

IRC Club Meets . . .

The IRC club had a well attended meeting, April 16, at the home of Anne Thompson. The group heard Robert Sharply, CPS psychology major, speak on "Life Behind the Iron Curtain." Sharply, a native of Eddy Peabody . . .

Eddie Peabody, an honorary Kappa Sigma, visited the Fraternity House while in Tacoma last week. Eddie had lunch at the House Friday afternoon, and spent the remainder of the time playing his banjo and talking with his Kappa Sig Brothers.

Eddy has been visiting the CPS Kappa Sig's for the past 25 years. While at CPS he was a member of Sigma Zeta Epsilon. Since the Fraternity went National he has been an honorary member of Kappa Sigma.

During the time he was here Friday, Eddy Peabody received a Kappa Sigma pin from the CPS membership.

Next year Eddy hopes to receive his four stripes. He is in the Reserve Navy.

Tahiti, was personally a concentration camp prisoner.

April 30, the IRC club will have a discussion meeting. Anyone interested in attending the meeting is invited to come to the SUB at 7:15. Transportation will be provided from the SUB to the meeting site. Refreshments will be served.

Carnival Ball . . .

Nearly five hundred people attended the benefit Carnival Ball held on Thursday, April 10. The inter-fraternity council, sponsoring the dance, raised $300.00 for policeman Charlie Fain. Fain had been seriously injured while on duty.

During the Wednesday night of vacation men from several fraternities set up the booths in the Fieldhouse. The next day members of each sorority and fraternity completed decorations on their group's booth.

At 8 p. m. the workshop band began to play. A crowd of high school and college students started to mill about under a streamer canopy of bright pennants. Dr. Thompson was seen pounding a nail into a stick of wood; he had to take more than the allotted number of swings. One policeman on duty let students throw a wet sponge at him, for a price. You could dunk a Sigma Chi if you hit the bull's eye. A trip wire sprung and a member fell into a vat of water. The wheel of fortune spun; candy and cake were sold.

IFC president, Dick Albertson, says, "If possible, IFC council wants each year to undertake some project such as this."

Commerce Club Plans National . . .

Planning for a national fraternity, a group of commerce students met with Mr. Vernon D. Jaquish of Wenatchee to discuss Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity. Commerce club president, Lester McCracken, will discuss the Lambda Sigma Chi started Spring Vacation with a bang by having its annual Spring Formal Friday night, April 4th. "Southern Comforts," the theme, was portrayed in the newly decorated Country Club. A "Mint Julip" quartet sang two numbers and the pledges furnished a skit for entertainment.

A Chili supper at the home of their advisor, Mrs. Coulter, was the main feature of the last meeting.

The Lambda's and the SAE's worked together in preparing for their booth at the Benefit Ball.

The Delta Delta Delta's had a fire-side with the Kappa Sigma's after their last Monday night's meeting.

Virginia Sandquist announced her engagement to Arvid Nordstrom of WSC.

Vicky Kerr is now recovering from a bad fall while skiing during Spring Vacation.

Kappa Sigma Rog Engberg took the fatal step this spring vacation when he was joined with Gloria Kloepper in marriage.

Last Friday Kappa Sigma played host to Eddie Peabody on his annual visit to his Kappa Sig Brothers.

Last Wednesday several members of Sigma Nu invited their girl friends for lunch at the Fraternity House. The affair was so successful that the Fraternity plans to make this lunch a monthly occasion.

Plans are in progress for the White Rose formal to be held next month. Committees have been selected and are ready at work.

By passing cigars Bob Weber announced his pinning to Pat McDonald.

Two engagements were announced at Pi Beta Phi's last meeting. Alum Gloria Nelson will marry Bob Harper from Port Townsend and Gwen Clumpner to Dick Eller.

The Theta Chi's entertained the Pi Phi's at a fireside after the meeting.

Several members and pledges of Theta Chi attended a banquet Tuesday night at the Top of the Ocean. This banquet was given by Pat Steele, alumnus, for those who worked on the prize winning float in the Daffodil Parade. A plaque was also presented to the House by the Alumni.

Also participating in the Chuck Fain Benefit dance, the Theta Chi's sponsored a booth known as, "The Wheel of Fortune."

Theta Chi's also entertained the Pi Phi's last Monday night at a fireside.

Sunday Gamma's attended church at the First Congregational church.

This Friday Gamma's and their guests will travel to Lake Wilderness for the annual spring dinner-dance. Delores Lovejoy is chairman of the affair.

Also, he will announce a beach outing to be held in May. Working for national affiliation, a group met Mr. Jaquish in Lester McCracken's home. They were Bob Beck, Larry Engle, Mary Jean Wasson, Tom Stanfield, and advisor, Dr. Battin.

AWS Announcement . . .

Coming May 5, a Monday, is the third birthday banquet for the Associated Women Students. "The dinner will be at the New Yorker, 6 p.m., and all members of Spurs are selling tickets at $1.35," announced Julia Snyder, social chairman of AWS.

Women are asked to buy their tickets early so reservations can be made. The banquet installs new AWS board members, WAA awards are made and Spurs and Otlah are tapped.

Knights and Ladies ... Of the Road ...

When you read this article the Adelphian Concert Choir and Light Opera Company will be lost somewhere in the wilds of Eastern Oregon. Singing every night and traveling a good part of the days many of the faithful forty are ready to come home already.

Ringling Bros. Circus could take lessons from the organization of this traveling troupe of troubadores. Committees for baggage loading, set up of scenery and risers, housing, and the various phases of taking care of meandering minstrels, are as well coordinated as possible. Thus far there has been no chance to pick up a sun tan, but the sunny south is still ahead.

The wandering warblers will continue south, cutting over to San Francisco and will then return to Tacoma again stopping along the way with their traditional one night stands.

Convocation ...

After the last note of the Alma Mater was sung, the students sat down and listened to Mrs. Carolyn Sullivan give the announcements and then tell of what a great privilege it was to be able to introduce the speaker, Dr. Angelo Pallegriani, Professor of English at the University of Washington.

The stocky man attired in a neat, dark, gray suit, author of "The Unprejudiced Palate," said that students would have an opportunity "to see a master chef in operation" next month when he returns to the campus to give cooking instructions.

Dr. Pallegriani, whose dark hair was sprinkled with gray, then spoke of several fellowships to study abroad which are offered to students, and he urged that the students should take advantage of them.

Since Dr. Pallegriani is immigrated from Italy, he drew from his stockpile of knowledge and comparison of the country of his birth and his present homeland, America.

The people of the old country say that America is the land of wonder and it is also the land of quantity. "In translation, it means," said Dr. Pallegriani, "the oysters are huge—and lousy." While the Europeans claim to be the land of quality.

Other criticisms leveled at us by the Europeans are that we are of a cold temperament, we are as hard as we are brilliant and all that glitters is ice, and that we do not love or expose emotion.

"We recognize what our shortcomings are," said Dr. Pallegriani.

In the land of the finest wines, the Dr. was aghast at the popularity of Coca Cola. The consumption of Coke, which increased 25 percent, replaced the drinking of wine, which decreased by the same amount.

Then he went on to quote Justice Stephen Douglas, "Our great power lies within our spiritual strength."

For illustration, the people of Italy must continue in the occupations that their fathers had before them and what their fathers had before them. But in this country we have the freedom of choice.

"And it is our purpose always to provide for the underdog, his needs, so he may be able to achieve self-realization," he concluded.

Track Meet . . .

The CPS cinder-stompers literally ran the Lutes into the track at the Logger track last Saturday. The final score was 75½ to 50½. CPS dominated the dashes and the hurdles, while the south-enders collected the majority of the points in the two distance runs.

Warren Logan was the top point getter, collecting two firsts and a pair of seconds. Logan is perhaps the most versatile trackman to hit the campus in several years. His efforts produced points in the 100-yard dash, the high hurdles, the javelin throw, and the broad jump.

Dan Inveen, the new holder of the Willamette relays high jump record, easily won the high jump. Due to a strong cross wind his mark was only 5' 10". This same wind was blowing directly in the faces of the dashmen, also, hence their comparatively slow times.

Wally Erwin, the Logger's ace pole-vaulter, suffered a separated shoulder in practice during vacation and did not compete in the vault. He placed a third in the broad jump, however.

Mile Run: Siek, PLC; Brown, PLC; Traynor, PLC—4:45.

Ski News . . .

"In regards to our summer program at Deep Creek," Dr. Springer, Chinook adviser, said "we'll be concerned mainly with continuing the development of the ski area there."

The CPS ski school came to a close last week with a ski race among members of the class at Paradise Valley, Dr. Springer said. Winners were Louis Fox and Delores Jordahl.

Four Baseball Games This Week . . .

The familiar O'Brien brothers are back again. They and their baseball teammates encounter the CPS Loggers in a four-game series Tuesday at Seattle and Thursday at the local South Tacoma Boy's Club field this week.

The Chiefs, it is rumored (strictly rumor) have six baseball pitchers attending Seattle University on athletic scholarships. More food for thought is that the O'Brien brothers were primarily brought west by Seattle U. for their baseball talents. Furthermore, reports from without the gates of Tacoma describe the Seattle U. ball club as a collection of hitters able to send any pitcher to the showers early.

The task in front of Coach V. Kohout's men is not easy but he is still optimistic (Logger record, one win, six losses) and freely predicts a respectable showing by the diamond nine. The Logger pitching looks good and, if the rest of the club can start hitting like Dale Platt, Don Murdock and Don Maitland, the Chieftains will get more of a battle from the Loggers than they expect.

Tennis . . .

The CPS netmen opened their season with matches against Western Washington College and Pacific Lutheran College came out on the short end of the score both times losing to Western 6-1 and to PLC 4-3. The match with Western was much closer than the score indicated. Each set was undecidedly down to the last serve. Coach Gee is confident that his men will be able to overpower both teams in next meetings.

There are six games remaining on this year's schedule and the conference meet at the University of British Columbia in May. Tentative plans have been made for matches with Whidby Island Naval Station and Everett Junior College.

All of the home games will be played at the Tacoma Tennis Club where there is ample seating for everyone, so let's get out and support our team.

Remaining Schedule

April 22—Seattle University, there.
April 25—Seattle University, here.
April 29—Seattle Pacific, here.
May 2—PLC, here.
May 13—Seattle Pacific, there.
May 16—Western Washington, here.
May 23, 24—Conference meet at UEC.

Baseball Summary . . .

In the Logger's debut with the St. Martin's Rangers three weeks ago, the Loggers lost the first game, 6-3, and took the abbreviated five-inning night cap, 1-0. To win, the Loggers relied heavily on Art Viafore's no-hit pitching performance.

During vacation week, the Loggers traveled to Bellingham and played the Western Washington College of Education Vikings. Bob Hansen of the Bells pitched a nice two-hit ball game while Art Viafore allowed but a scant three hits in a close, 2-0, battle. The second game, started by pitcher Duane Wilson and finished by Art Viafore who returned for relief duty, found the Bells capitalizing on five straight walks and several errors to win handily by a score of ten to six. The best hit of the afternoon by either team was a long foul ball by an unidentified Bellingham player.

A week-ago yesterday, the Loggers succumbed to the PLC Gladiators, 4-1 and 10-6. Dick Colombini relieved ailing Art Viafore in the first game and also pitched the second game. Tiring, Colombini developed control trouble, and an erratic team behind him booted a couple chances to lose their six-one lead and wrap up the gift to the Lutes.

Thursday of last week, the Loggers lost, 9-2, to the McChord Field Flyers. The Loggers did, however, take top honors in the accompanying verbalistic contest which became a spirited battle of wits and gestures through the middle innings of the slow game.

For the most part the Loggers have had good pitching thus far in the campaign. Their main trouble seems to be a lack of power at the plate and costly errors at crucial moments afield, and too, the squad, undermanned at full strength, has had more than its share of injuries and sickness.

Rally Comm Elects . . .

Monday evening Rally Comm members elected officers for next year. Ralph Mackey landed on top as president; Don Boesel, treasurer; Janet Vroman, publicity; Larry Lamb, stunts; Beverly Hoback, rally chairman; and Hal Willard, secretary.

New members of Rally Comm are Ann Marr, Ann DuBois, Janet Vroman, Margie Berry and Janet Rollins.

Intramurals . . .

Kappa Sigma added another trophy to their mantle last week by coming out on top of the extremely close table tennis tournament. Two other teams, Sigma Chi and ROTC, were in the thick of the title action right down to the last match. They finished in a tie for second place, just one game behind the winners.

Kappa Sigma's singles champions were Russ Wilkerson and Charley Roe. Three men, Warren Moyles, Bob Demko and Don Maitland, rotated to form the winning doubles team.

Final standings:

	Pts.	W.	L.
Kappa Sig	60	18	3
Sigma Chi	54½	17	4
ROTC	54½	17	4
Todd Hall	53	12	9
DK	52	9	12
SAE	51	6	15
Sigma Nu	50	4	17
Theta Chi	49	2	19

Chinook . . .

At the final meeting of Chinook last Wednesday, Dick Graham formally handed over his gavel to the newly-elected president, Steve Tudor. Jim Gourley has taken over as vice president, and Marilyn Rosso will now be the secretary. Plans were made to continue the active program of student development of the Deep Creek area.

Members of the men's Chinook ski team participated in the open race for all members of Tacoma ski organizations. Weldon Howe won first place in the race and took home the Tacoma Day trophy.

Sore Eye Balls . . .

No, that man on campus with the patch over his eye and the dark glasses is not a pirate or a gangster. No, this is Dr. Sprenger of the chemistry department.

Last Wednesday as he sat industriously over his typewriter, he snapped a sheet of paper out of the machine and in the process, the paper hit a lamp overhead, bounced back and hit him in the eye.

Not that a piece of paper attacking one in the eye is so painful, but when the corner of the paper collides neatly with the eyeball head on and cuts a quarter-square inch of the eyeball, yes, it is very painful.

So this week Dr. Sprenger graduated from the patch over the eye to the dark glasses and for the first time, he is just able to peer out at the world.

Epperson Travels . . .

Mr. Gordon Epperson will teach cello next year at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge. He will become a member of the faculty string quintet and have first chair in the Baton Rouge symphony. Before he begins his teaching, he will have a few weeks to visit in his home state of Florida.

During the summer he will teach and play for ten weeks in Transylvania Music Camp near Ashville, North Carolina. This work includes three week music festival which will be covered by the Mutual Broadcasting Company.

Seek Ye . . .

Dr. R. Franklin Thompson left the 19th on an extended trip that will eventually lead to New York City. According to Marion Gee, Thompson is on the prowl for a new head of the Music Department. The president's itinerary seems to be rather hazy but it was said that he is stopping off in several cities on the way to interview prospective music teachers.

The president is scheduled to stay in New York several days visiting the various foundations. It is said he is trying to interest the foundations in CPS and especially in the new library building scheduled to start construction in the future.

Thompson will return to the campus May 6.

Women's College League . . .

The Women's College League of the College of Puget Sound will have a rummage sale April 22 and 23 at Wells hall, No. 3rd and K Sts. Articles for sale are, women's, men's and children's clothing, shoes, etc., bulbs, plants, and shrubs. Baked goods and food, also furniture.

The league will welcome donations, articles will be received at Wells hall Monday. For further information call Mrs. W. Brown at PR 3634, or Mrs. G. E. McMaster at PR 3369.

Piano Recital . . .

On Sunday at 4:00 p. m. in Jones Hall auditorium Mr. Jacobsen will give a piano recital. The major work will be the sonata in b minor by Chopin. One unusual piece which he will play will be "Carillon," by Liapounow, one of twelve transcendental Etudes. "The composer uses the full possibilities of the piano to make good music," Mr. Jacobsen says. Mr. Jacobsen did his master's thesis on these pieces. Also on his program is "Two Minute Discussion at Lake Success" by Mr. Ostransky

New Truck . . .

Last December the old red and white CPS truck was replaced by a shiny new version of the same make, namely a Chevrolet.

The old red truck came to the campus in 1948, it like many of the students who arrived on campus at that time, was a war veteran, having served on Okinawa.

Now it has been replaced by a shiny new green Chevrolet 1951, 1½-ton truck.
